

Spa Swimmers Receive Awards for Sparkling Year's Work

Leamington Spa Swimming Club held their annual awards celebration at Old Leamingtonians Rugby Club on January 6th. Swimmers from both squads and teaching groups were rewarded for their excellent progress and commitment over the last twelve months. Head Coach Mike Hartwell presented the prizes to twenty nine swimmers from age six to seventeen. The Junior Ambassador Trophy was awarded to Maddie Spalding. The fifteen year old from Leamington, who competed in the National Championships last summer in the 100 metre breaststroke, was credited for her application, skill and determination when performing both as an individual and as a representative of LSASC.

Jonny Jones and Teigan Parker were awarded Ria's trophy. This special commemorative trophy is awarded to the two swimmers who have shown the most improvement over the last twelve months. Parker, 11, has recently enjoyed sparkling form gaining Midlands Qualifying times in four events.

Treasurer of the Club Dana Payne was awarded the Senior Ambassador's trophy for her services to the Club.

Other trophy winners included; Lucy Taylor, Josh Mitchell, Connell Parker, Daffyd Jones, Phoebe Spalding, Laura Vaabal, Amy Pettigrew, Meg McDonald, Amalia Midstaeter, Nathan Weaver, Sophie Woodland, Callum McWhirter, Evan McWhirter, Anna Harvey, Katie Gray, Mollie Dibb, Aran Shuttlewood, Felicity Dempster, Harry Manship, Nick Payne, Sophie Vale, Sarah Brades, Peter Clark, Alex de Tullio and Sophie Hartwell.
